

Happy New Year to one and all. I hope your christmasses and NYE parties were good and indulgent. Our was vey family oriented which was good, although I worked right up to Christmas Eve and then had church services at midnight and on Christmas day, so all in all pretty tiring. I know I am not alone in that though.

I had a nice email from Thomas, DL2TT, who offered me the following article. I thank you Thomas and hope readers find this interesting.

Dear FISTS CW Colleagues,

Not long ago Thomas, DL2TT, wondered: where are our FISTS friends currently on the air, and at what Morse speeds are they travelling across the bands?

From this idea a practical project has developed into a neat website that may be just as interesting for you: <https://fists.dl2tt.de>

Perhaps your station setup invites you to operate mainly on 40 m? Simply sort the webpage by your favourite band and take a look where the next active FISTS member is located – on which QRG and with what CW speed. Further sorting options can be found in the menu, such as bands, continents, or individual countries. The page is meant to help you discover real on-air FISTS neighbours and encourage new contacts in CW on the air.

Thomas, DL2TT, welcomes your feedback. The link for contacting him is available in the upper menu bar of the website, and suggestions for improvement are highly appreciated.

To respect privacy, past QSO activity is kept in the database for only two hours and is automatically deleted afterwards.

The website displays your own callsign in real time as soon as an RBN skimmer is able to read your transmission. To avoid excessive refreshing, the time until the same call can appear again has been throttled:

- Same call and same QRG: renewed display after 10 minutes
- Same call with QRG change: after 6 minutes

May this tool help you meet many FISTS members in CW on the air. Many thanks to the team at fists.co.uk for supporting the worldwide community.

Take a look at the Activity Map, sort by your band, and call the next FISTS member you find. Switch on the rig, set your key in motion, and turn those dits and dahs into new QSOs and friendships.

See you in CW – on the air.

On behalf of the project,
Thomas / DL2TT

I have not yet tried this but hope many of you do and are able to report back on it's usefulness. Again, my thanks to Thomas!

I have photos from QRZ of Peter and Erkki, Alan and Norbert will have to send me selfies!! Peter below in salmon shirt and Erkki at the outdoor /p desk!

A hearty congrats to all of you, Peter, Alan, Erkki and Norbert! Hard work I know, but it has paid off. Good luck next year as well. Actually, I say hard work but the reality is, it's talking with friends and so is always good fun, nevertheless, well done.

Ladder December 2025: Comments

Entrant	Comments
Jean F6JOE	HNY to all ! 73 Jean F6JOE - FISTS 16177
Leslie G0DFC	Well first let me wish you all a happy healthy new year and good DX. Pleased I got one half session in the evening of the 28th. 73' les/g0dfc
Simon G0FOZ	Conditions not great this month, particularly the first session. Thanks for all the ladder QSOs this year. May you all be happy and well in 2026, see you on the air! 73 Simon G0FOZ
John G0UBE	Hard work. There must be a way to work more!!
Chris G3XVL	My December log. Happy New Year to all. 73 Chris
Andy G4KKU	Thanks for the QSOs.
Keith G4TJE	Enjoyed the 2025 fists ladder. Hope to work you all in 2026. Hope to all have a happy new year. 73 Keith G4TJE
Richard G4TPJ	FT840
John G4YTJ	I only managed to operate on 28th December but at least managed both sessions. Condx on the afternoon seemed fair but I suspect there weren't many stations on. By the evening skip had lengthened on 40m and I was getting nothing less than 600 miles on the RBN. I did work Norbert ON4ANE on 80m but my inverted vee is too short for 80m really - it's rare to get any RBN reports with it.
Steve M0SHM	Thank you all for a great year of Fists Ladder QSOs. HNY and see you again on the bands in January.
Pete M5ABN	Log for December, Very little activity this month due to family commitments and Xmas. Looking forward to 2026 activities. Very Happy New Year to the team at Fists and all members. 73 Pete #6423
Alan MW0BGL	I've attached my entry for the December ladder sessions. It's a bit thin for QSOs this month as unfortunately, I didn't take part in the one on the 28th as I was away visiting family. I hope everyone had a good Christmas and all the best for the New Year. Looking forward to the forthcoming ladder sessions and the additional activities in 2026. Vy 73, Alan Mw0bgl 16507
Erkki OH7QR	Hello David, please find attached my Ladderlog. Have been sick in December, now slowly recovering. HNY to you and your family. 73 Erkki OH7QR
Norbert ON4ANE	Hello David, Session 2 on 28/12/2025 impossible to hear any G stn on 40m, hny 2026 73 de NORBERT ON4ANE
Jan PA0SIM	Sri, was a bit sloppy with sending the log. This time I didn't forget. Best wishes to everyone for 2026! HNY es 73 Jan PA0SIM
